Fostering connections within the Order of Saint Luke

May 2012 Special Edition

From the Prior General

Sr. Sue Moore, esmoore@alum.mit.edu

Welcome to a “Special Edition” of the Font! The Council of the General Chapter of the Order of Saint Luke (that’s a mouthful – but that is the formal title for the elected and appointed officers of the Order) met last week in Pittsburgh, and a special edition of the Font seemed like a great way to share with you some of the things that went on at our meeting.

What you will find in this edition are:

- A copy of the revised Collect for the Order of Saint Luke
- Information about the October 2012 gathering of the Order of Saint Luke
- A registration form for October
- News of our newly chartered chapters
- An article from our new Pastoral Care Officer
- News from the Nominations Committee
- A ballot for the election of officers
- A catalog of books currently available from OSL Publications

I hope that this information is helpful in keeping you connected to your Order – and that I will be receiving a registration form from you soon for October!

Please note on your calendars: The May 2013 meeting of the Council will be in Pittsburgh at Saint Paul of the Cross May 20-23. NOTE: This is a week later than originally announced.

A Collect for the Order of Saint Luke

O Shepherd of us all,
who inspired your servant Saint Luke the physician
to set forth in the Gospel the love and healing power of Jesus:
Grant, we ask you, your Spirit to the Order of Saint Luke,
that we may proclaim faithfully the apostolic hope,
magnify the sacraments and
and embody Christ’s healing grace for all Creation;
Through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

From the Provincial General–

Br. George R. Crisp, Provincial General
revgrc@yahoo.com

Br. George provided the following report to the Council:

1. Discontinuing Chapters – Br. Matthias Tanner reports that all of the officers in the Barnabas Chapter have resigned and no one has stepped forward to lead. Although those interested in the Order will gather for prayer at annual conference, Br. Terry Sager is no longer able to work at developing the Arkansas Chapter. Due to his personal health concerns, and a general lack of interest, Br. David Eichelberger has not been able to develop a chapter in the Pittsburgh Area. I recommend that we discontinue tracking or developing these groups. As always, we would welcome chapter development in these areas in the future.
2. Seminary Chapters – Last fall, Dr. Ian McFarland, who at one time succeeded Br. Don Saliers as Faculty Advisor, reported that the St. Benedict Chapter of the Order is not listed among the campus groups and no advisor is assigned. If anyone has contacts at Candler, I'd appreciate an update.
3. In Formation / Transitioning – Reorganization work continues in the Boston University Chapter under the leadership of Br. Jeffrey Cox. In March, we received an inquiry about the Order from Rev. Luis Hildalgo Ruiz in Chile. He was sent what documents we have translated into Spanish, but it is too early to see if an OSL chapter will be formed there. Br. Matt Landry has made an inquiry about starting a chapter in Indiana. He was sent materials<sup>1</sup> and invited to contact Provincial Companion Br. Bob Jarboe for more information on the history of the once active Indiana Chapter.
4. New Chapters – As we prepare for the spring Council meeting in Pittsburgh, we have received a Covenanting Document for the re-organized Philippines Chapter. They plan on an annual meeting around St. Luke's Day, October 18, and quarterly regional meetings in three sub-chapter areas. The Holy Cross Chapter (Nebraska and Kansas East conferences) is requesting reinstatement and has submitted a new Covenanting Document. Their plans include an annual meeting and an annual retreat. The Council will take action on these requests.
5. Reminder – The following process is used to track chapter transitions:
  - a. Reorganizing – When one of the bi-annual chapter reports indicates a chapter is in trouble, list that chapter as “reorganizing” for one report cycle (October or May);
  - b. Suspended – If there are no successful efforts to re-energize or regroup the chapter, list that group as being “suspended” for one year;
  - c. Discontinue – Should the chapter remain inactive after one year, the Council will take a vote on the discontinuance of the chapter.

From the Pastoral Care Officer

Bro. David Eichelberger, OSL DavidEOSL@aol.com

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

I have been appointed by Abbot Daniel to take up the ministry which was begun so ably by Br. Tom Beveridge. I am humbled by his confidence in me to do this work. I ask for your ongoing prayers that God will continue to be glorified by this work on behalf of the Order. As we have already learned from Br. Tom's work, the Pastoral Care Officer is tasked with the particular ministry of interceding on behalf of those who are in need for particular prayer. These may be celebratory or they may be sorrowful in nature. Whatever their source, they call us to remember that we are to be constant in prayer to God about our lives and ministries.

To seek to be as comprehensive in this prayer ministry as possible, I will be establishing a calendar to pray for the Church of Christ around the world, our General Officers, our Provincial Companions, our Priors, our Chapters, our Associations and our members on a particular rotating schedule. Additionally I will be lifting up prayer concerns via the Cyber chapter and "The Font" as I learn of them. In many instances, we will lift the name of the person who has requested prayer, without a particular reason being given, since our God whose Holy Spirit intercedes on our behalf is certainly aware of the particular situation. On other occasions, the particular concern or event necessitating prayer will be announced. We will continue to seek to be sensitive to the privacy of all involved and will not give a particular concern unless authorized by that person or unless that person has already publically asked for particular prayers. I will lift up prayers as requests or concerns are received. The following will be the particular pattern I will use as a revolving schedule for regular intercessions:

Mondays: The General Officers, the Appointed Officers, and our prior Abbots/Presidents of the Order;

Tuesdays: The Order –Chapters and Associations will be lifted up on a rotating basis by name. I would invite Priors to send me lists of their officers and members and of any particular concerns they may have.

Wednesdays: Provincial Companions and their areas of ministry so that we may remember our many members in diaspora;

Thursdays: Inquirers and New Comers to the Order;

Fridays: Priors and Chapter/Association Officers;

Saturday: The Order and the Community of Saint Luke;

Sunday: The Church Universal and for those in mission in the world.

We as an Order have been blessed by God to call others to the vital ministry of corporate prayer through worship and in personal devotions. Let us not grow weary in this work, for truly our Order, our denominations, the wide spectrum of Christian traditions, and our world are looking to us to be vigilant in approaching the throne of grace through our Savior Jesus Christ.

It is hoped that in the near future, you may go to the OSL website and be able to contact me by clicking on the link to my email account. Until that has been enabled, please contact me at DavidEOSL@aol.com. I am also available at my cellular telephone which is listed in the directory-630-661-3452. Feel free to call me from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m.E.S.T. , unless there is an emergency. I hope to be available soon on skype at DAVIDEOSL as well.

Yours in Christ,
Br. David A. Eichelberger, O.S.L.

“Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. “ Philippians 4:4-7

A Special Note from the Historical Task Force

Alert! Alert! Since many folks are in the midst of sorting and packing before they move to their new appointments, you may come across items relating to OSL. Please do not throw these items away. Send them to the Historical Task Force via David Eichelberger, 377 S. Winebiddle St., Pittsburgh, PA 15224-2226, or directly to the Methodist Librarian at the United Methodist Archives and History Center, 36 w. Main St. Madison, NJ 07940. Please indicate the your donation is for the OSL archives in their care.

Unfortunately, many important items have been lost because individuals did not think we would be interested in such materials. We are keen to collect as much as we can from our history from our founding in 1946 as both a national order or chapters and associations. Thank you for taking the time to ensure that these items do not get lost to us.

David Eichelberger
Chair, Historical Task Force

Report of the Nominations Committee

Br. Daniel Diss was not able to attend the Council meeting because of family illness, and asked Br. Robert Davis to chair the Nominations committee meeting of the Priors on Tuesday evening.

On Wednesday, Br. Bob gave this report to the Council. He presented the slate of nominees for the upcoming election...

- Br. Dan Benedict for Abbot,
- Sr. Sue Moore for Prior General,
- Br. George Crisp for Provincial General,
- and Br. Scott Alford for Chancellor General.

Br. Geoffrey Moore supplemented this report by sharing how the voting will take place. We are going to communicate electronically. The ballot will be included in a special edition of The Font which will include a hyperlink to Br. Daniel Diss, providing members a chance to accept or decline the slate by July 1. Br. Dwight Vogel moved and Br. Michael Mayfield seconded to receive the report of the nominating committee and instruct the curate of elections to proceed with the election. Motion carried.

Balloting will be done by mail (either USPS or e-mail) this summer, and results will be announced and officers installed at the retreat in October in Pittsburgh. The ballot appears on the next page, and it can be emailed to Br. Daniel Diss at danielOSL@hotmail.com or mailed to him at Br. Daniel Diss, 315 E. Hill St. Genoa, IL 60135

From the Constitution of the Order of Saint Luke

And Also With You, Years A (print) and C (digital) $34.95
This book brings together all the basic elements for ensuring continuity and thematic wholeness to the worship of the congregation each week and holy day. Based on the Revised Common Lectionary (1992), each volume contains resources for 72 possible services for the liturgical year. Each service's section includes a summary of the lessons and the psalm. Propers include a Greeting, Collect and General Prayer for the Day which lift up the themes of the texts. Also, an antiphon based on a familiar hymn tune is provided. The collection is completed by a piece of original line art which illustrates the gospel theme for the day. Copyright permission is given to reproduce the art as a bulletin cover and to include the psalm response in the bulletin. Templates are provided to assist in laying out the weekly service for copy machine.

Banquet's Wisdom, The $19.95
978-1-878009-50-0
Gary Macy
In the Introduction, Macy points to the past and asks some very pertinent questions:
For over fifteen hundred years, Christians were, for the most part, "in communion". ... The Christian people, as a whole, have a much longer history of unity than of disunity. This simple historical observation raises some interesting questions. How did we as a community get from there to here? How did the earlier centuries manage to maintain the communion which seems so to elude us? ... Perhaps in rediscovering our former union, we Christians may find the grounds for overcoming our present disunion.

Christian Meditation and Inner Healing $14.95
978-1-878009-38-9
Dwight Judy
This revised edition of Christian Meditation and Inner Healing offers an introduction to classical modes of prayer. Inviting the reader into Centering Prayer, the Jesus Prayer, and lectio divina, Judy places these ancient practices of the church within the contemporary framework of psychological health and well-being. DWIGHT JUDY, a United Methodist pastor, brings his training in Transpersonal Psychology and his years of experience as teacher, spiritual director, and retreat guide to this writing. His gentle, hospitable style of guidance is evident through the book.

Church Architecture: Building and Renovating for Christian Worship $14.95
978-1-878009-10-9
James and Susan White
A classic volume from the time of its first edition over a decade ago, Church Architecture has become an indispensable reference for congregations planning to build or renew their church facilities.

This new edition takes into account elements which have become prominent in recent times including the use of visuals, electronic instruments, and the need for flexible space to accommodate the various configurations and multiple uses to which church space is put.

Come! Come! Everybody Worship!

$24.95

978-1-878009-60-

Carolyn Tanner

Come! Come! Everybody Worship! is a study guide for children on the United Methodist Basic Pattern of Worship. The volume includes reproducible student pages along with a detailed teacher's guide. Designed primarily for elementary-aged children, the resource can be adapted to a wide range of teaching situations.

Eucharist and Eschatology

$24.95

978-1-878009-37-1

Geoffrey Wainwright

Geoffrey Wainwright's seminal work "Eucharist and Eschatology" was first published in 1971 by Epworth Press in Great Britain. Since that time, it has been a standard text for sacramentalists and theologians. In this third edition, edited for generosity of language and featuring a new preface and bibliography, Dr Wainwright's attention to detail and passion for his topic is available to a new generation of scholars.

Eucharistic Hymns of John and Charles Wesley, The

$24.95

978-1-878009-55-5

J. Ernest Rattenbury

Here is the classic text in an all-new edition which explores the treasury of Wesleyan theology as expressed in the hymns of those "enthusiasts" of the eighteenth century. The original, out of print since 1948, has been edited for generous language, usage and style for the modern reader. Included with the text is Brevint's The Christian Sacrament and Sacrifice, as well as the complete (unedited) Hymns on the Lord's Supper, originally published by the Wesleys in 1745.

Food for Pilgrims

$14.95

9781-878009-28-1

Dwight Vogel

Dwight Vogel leads the reader on a new exploration into a way of living revealed by Luke, who has given us some of the most beautiful stories found in scripture. Here we may find food for our journey to the heart of God. This "Lukan spirituality", grounded in the revelation of God-in-the-flesh, enlightens us on our pilgrim way and sustains us through the means of grace.

Good Lord, Deliver Us: The Praise of God and the Problem of Evil

$14.95

978-1-878009-41-8

Rowan Crews

Through the lens of the liturgies of mainline Protestant denominations, Dr Crews blends academic perspective and narrative style to examine a liturgical theology of evil. He offers a theological experience of God present with us in times of pain and sorrow, suffering and despair. In this study covering the breadth of corporate worship, the author weaves stories and reflections into a garment of hope and faith.

I Belong to God

$24.95

978-1-878009-58-6

Carolyn Tanner

In a manner similar to her communion study for children and youth, Carolyn Tanner offers a six-session study of baptism, based on By Water and the Spirit. The six sessions explore concepts of God's love and grace that we experience in baptism. Tanner includes Bible stories, music, crafts, puzzles, and mission education as part of the study. Many reproducible pages.

In Her Own Rite: Constructing Feminist Liturgical Tradition

$19.95

978-1-878009-40-1

Marjorie Procter-Smith

In a major updating of a classic text, Procter-Smith offers us the foundational work in feminist liturgical study that made this book a standard at its first publication; we are privileged also with her perspectives on the growth and changes in the field over the past ten years.

Procter-Smith addresses the benefits of and necessity for dialogue between the liturgical and feminist fields of study. She grounds the reader in "liturgical fundamentals: meaning and imagination in liturgy," through her exploration of such basic liturgical issues as language (verbal, physical and visual), God-talk, preaching and the role of the Bible, and the sacraments.

In Spirit and Truth

$16.95

978-1-878009-53-1

L. Edward Phillips and Sara Webb Phillips

A scholar and a pastor call United Methodists away from the worship wars and back to the holy grounds of scripture, tradition, and lived experience with biblical, theological, and practical guidance for all who lead worship in the United Methodist tradition.

John Wesley's Prayer Book

$24.95

978-1-878009-10-9

Here, for the first time in this century, is the full resource of Mr. Wesley's Sunday Service of the Methodists in North America.

Sent to the growing Methodist Societies in the United States in 1784, it was the product of John Wesley's careful abridgement of the Book of Common Prayer, intended to serve as a guide for the ordering of worship for what was to become the first American church. It is truly John Wesley's prayer book and his gift to the people now known as United Methodist.

Included in this facsimile reproduction is the collection of Collects for each Sunday of the year, the complete lectionary and Wesley's A Collection of Psalms and Hymns, which was bound into the original volume.

Lift Up Your Hearts, Year A and C (print or cd)

$34.95

Eucharistic prayers (Great Thanksgivings) for Sundays and special days based on the Revised Common Lectionary.

Liturgy & Learning Through the Life Cycle

$14.95

978-1-878009-21-0

John H. Westerhoff

This is a book for pastors, religious educators, members of liturgy/worship and religious education committees, and others interested in the renewal of individual and corporate life through worship.

Using as its reference points the various life passages through which people move (e.g. birth, marriage, retirement, relocating, sickness and death) the writers show how the services of the church form and express the faith of the Christian community. Building upon their original work (1980) this edition takes advantage of the emerging trends in liturgical and educational development. This would make an excellent text for the catechumenate as well as the seminary classroom

My Great Redeemer's Praise: An Introduction to Christian Hymns $14.95

978-1-878009-21-0

Carlton R. Young

The foremost church music editor of this century presents a comprehensive survey of ecumenical hymnody from its Hebrew roots to the present.

Building upon his earlier work, Dr. Young explores the journey taken by the Church in developing its repertoire for the ordering and expansion of worship.

My Great Redeemer's Praise is written for church musicians, pastors and other worship leaders, church school classes, college and seminary students. Carlton Young's clear — and entertaining — style make this a volume which will enhance the library of anyone who loves the music of the Church.

Ordo: Bath, Word, Prayer, Table $19.95

978-1-878009-52-4

Dirk G. Lange, Dwight W. Vogel

Twelve colleagues join to pay tribute to Gordon W. Lathrop - and to "prime the pump" of liturgical theological dialogue. The reader is invited into conversations as wide-ranging as Schillebeeckx' insistence on the "irruption" of God in the ritualization of daily life to Herbert Anderson's invitation to the preparation of liturgical responses to public acts of violence.

Poetic Justice: Reflections on Year C $24.95

978-1-878009-56-2

Jim Wilson

Poetic reflections on the Sunday texts of the Revised Common Lectionary, three year cycle, suitable for personal devotion and preparation for worship.

New!

Presbyterian Worship in the Twentieth Century $24.95

978-1-878009-70-8

Arlo D. Duba

Traces the development of the Book of Common Worship (1993) from the sixteenth century to its publication in 1993. Attention is given to the roles of scholarship, tradition, and denominational receptivity in the renewal of worship.

Quest for the Mystical Christ $16.95

978-1-878009-46-3

Dwight Judy

Come and journey with Dwight Judy toward an understanding of the mystical Christ, as present to us today as at any point in human history. As Craig Emerick says: In these perilous, promising days, Dwight Judy serves as a profound guide [for] all who seek to unite the two so long divided, the inner work of authentic Christian faith and the outer work for a life of compassion in the world...

Judy offers a study guide at the end of each chapter, making the book especially appropriate for small groups, adult Sunday School classes and all those seeking a closer relationship with God.

Reviving Sacred Speech: The Meaning of Liturgical Language $14.95

978-1-878009-36-4

Gail Ramshaw

In 1985, Gail Ramshaw wrote Christ in Sacred Speech, a book about the metaphoric meaning of liturgical language. When considering a reissue, Ramshaw wished the book to reflect the scholarship and evolution in thought of those intervening years. Reviving Sacred Speech incorporates that original work and adds her "Second Thoughts" at the conclusion of each chapter.

"Careful attention to the rich ambiguity and layers of meaning in liturgical language . . . make this book one of the very best mystagogies of liturgical language one can find." —GIL OSTDIEK, Past President, North American Academy of Liturgy

Soul in Paraphrase, The

$14.95

978-1-878009-08-1

Don Saliers

This landmark study (in its second edition) explores the intimate relationship between prayer and the life of the one who prays. Saliers' observation that "Christians pray and worship before they 'do theology'" makes this a particularly timely volume, especially in light of the new generation which lacks a fund of memory when coming into the Church. "All theology begins and ends with prayer." The author explores prayer as the medium which both expresses and forms the fundamental doctrines and emotions of life. In this work, the writer demonstrates the way in which prayer shapes and expresses the emotions of gratitude, holy fear and repentance, joy and suffering, and love of God and neighbor.

Sugar Blood Jesus: A Memoir of Faith, Madness, and Cream Gravy

$19.95

978-1-878009-63-

Thomas Dukes

Drawing its title from a poetic play on the phrase "sugar in the blood" to describe diabetes, author Thomas Dukes writes engagingly about his life and faith in a voice that is part coffeepot gossip, part middle-aged queen, part dutiful son and altogether honest and kind.

The Lord Be With You

$24.95

978-1-878009-06-7

Charles D. Hackett and Don E. Saliers

This is the perfect pairing of the liturgical text with the gestures appropriate to expressing their power. Avoiding the often difficult task of communicating ceremony and manual acts with words alone, The Lord Be With You through vivid photographs, presents clear examples for the practitioner and the student alike.

This Holy Mystery: A Study Guide for Children and Youth

$19.95

978-1-878009-54-0

Carolyn Tanner

Written by a curriculum professional, this study guide offers the full text of "This Holy Mystery" along with lesson plans, teaching aids and student activity pages designed to be used with students from early elementary through confirmation age.

Two Ways of Praying

$19.95

978-1-878009-59-3

Paul Bradshaw

In a new edition of a classic, Paul Bradshaw explores the relationship between private and corporate prayer. More critical to the conversation now than ever before, Bradshaw reconnects personal spiritual life and the communal practices of prayer and worship

Under the Tree of Life: The Religion of a Feminist Christian $16.95
978-1-878009-48-7
Gail Ramshaw

"This book records my engagement with that [Christian] spark. It alternately energizes and shocks me, enlightens and burns me, that spark skipping over the seas." writes Gail Ramshaw in the Introduction to Under the Tree of Life. Written in reflection on her fiftieth birthday, the book invites us into reflections on "the religion of a feminist Christian" whose gift for language has been tremendous gift to the Church.

Wisdom's Dwelling Place $19.95
978-1878009-66-1
Jill Crainshaw

Rooted in scripture, shaped by diverse traditions, embodied in human experiences, and aimed toward transforming the world through redeemed and redeeming actions, wisdom-based liturgies can and do become God's dwelling places.

Worship and Spirituality (Second Edition) $16.95
978-1-878009-27-2
Don Saliers

As more people come to define and live into their relationship with God, they turn to the Bible as their major source of inspiration and knowledge. In the search they travel with other members of a praying, worshiping community of believers. Moving forward, the individual and the community move to the core of the Christian experience — life in the Spirit. Saliers speaks to all who "gather around the font, the book and the table" to recover their center. "Without living remembrance of the whole biblical story there would be no authentic worship, nor could there be any such thing as becoming a living reminder of Jesus Christ for others."
